1. Purpose

- 1.1 It is a privilege to be provided with accommodation at any camp that may be built by Encana (Encana camps or camp) and such privilege may be revoked in accordance with the Encana camp rules provided herein. The camp rules (camp rules) provide standards which shall govern the Encana camps.
- 1.2 These Encana camp rules are intended to maintain safe working conditions, to protect the health, life and well being of camp residents and visitors (respectively “residents” and “visitors”), to ensure the best possible quality of life, as well as to protect personal and camp property.

2. Responsibilities

- 2.1 Encana shall designate a camp manager to oversee the camp.
- 2.2 The camp manager is accountable for the overall safe and efficient operation of the camp.
- 2.3 The camp manager shall post the camp rules in a location at the camp such that they can be easily referenced by camp residents and visitors.
- 2.4 The camp manager as designated by Encana shall be responsible for the enforcement of the camp rules and shall ensure that these camp rules are adhered to without exception.
- 2.5 It is the responsibility of every resident and visitor to read and understand the standards and policies outlined in this document, and to abide by, these camp rules.

- 2.6 All persons who require camp accommodations shall be provided a copy of the camp rules and are required to execute the Encana Camp Rules Acknowledgement Form (attached as Appendix A hereto) prior to entering the camp for any reason. For greater certainty, each contractor shall be responsible to provide its employees and any subcontractor employee who requires camp accommodation with a copy of the camp rules. Further, each contractor shall provide its construction management team Encana representative with an executed Encana Camp Rules Acknowledgement Form for each contractor and subcontractor employee who requires camp accommodation prior to such employees entering the camp for any reason.
- 2.7 Contractor shall advise Encana five business days in advance of its camp accommodation requirements. Request for accommodations to be accompanied with proper billing information (eg. AFE number/major minor).
- 2.8 All persons are required to register at the camp office upon arrival at the camp (checking in) and upon departure from the camp (checking out). Checking contractor and subcontractor personnel out of the camp are the sole responsibility of the contractor. Should the contractor fail to check its personnel out of camp, all costs for days incurred until such personnel have been checked out will be charged to the contractor.
- 2.9 Should the contractor require accommodation for additional days due to delays that it has caused, the contractor shall make such requests in writing to Encana. If approved, and if camp space is available, accommodations will be provided at the prevailing per person rate and charged to the contractor's account.
- 2.10 At the request of the camp manager or Encana representative, contractor and its subcontractors shall immediately remove from camp any of their personnel.
- 2.11 Cancellations made less than 24 hours in advance of anticipated occupancy, and no-shows, will be charged to the contractor's account at the prevailing per person rate.

3. Room occupancy

- 3.1 No person may occupy a camp room without prior approval from the camp manager or designate.
- 3.2 A resident must immediately vacate a camp room at any time that he or she is directed to do so by the camp manager or Encana representative. Encana may, in its sole discretion, change any resident's designated camp room at any time, for any reason.
- 3.3 Any resident vacating a camp room must return all camp property, including, but not limited to, any keys and supplies provided by the camp manager prior to his or her departure from the camp. Any items not returned will be charged back to the contractor.
- 3.4 Any resident leaving the camp must remove all personal items from the room or have their supervisor notify the camp manager, who in his or her sole discretion may allow the resident to remain in his or her camp room; all costs will be charged back to the contractor.
